

Presented by
Los Angeles Mumbai Sister City
Affiliation

Indian Film Festival of Los Angeles

April 17-22, 2007

LIFE IS ALL ABOUT FRIENDS (UNNI)

US PREMIERE

Directed by Murali Nair
India-France/2006/83 min/35mm
(Malayalam with English subtitles)

The first film in a trilogy, LIFE IS ALL ABOUT FRIENDS charts the mischievous exploits of four boys at the start of the school year. Through their exploits at school and life at home, they learn about their place in the world and the importance of friendship.

Thursday, April 19 - 7:15pm

Sunday, April 22 - 12:00pm

ArcLight Hollywood

6360 W. Sunset Blvd.

Hollywood, CA 90028

(Q&A with director Murali Nair to follow the screening)

Tickets now available at the ArcLight Hollywood box office and online at www.arclightcinemas.com
General admission: $11; Discounted admission: $9 (students, seniors, children, AFI and ArcLight members)

Opening and Closing Nights Galas: $60 each (includes screening and reception)

Tribute evening: $15 (Thursday, April 19, 2007)

Fest Pass: $75 (includes all regular screenings)

All-Access Pass: $200 (includes all regular screenings, galas and Tribute)

For more information on the festival program please visit www.indianfilmfestival.org